

ARCHIE STUART GRAND MASTER

Resignation of Thompson
Comes as Surprise to Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

IMPORTANT LEGISLATION

SALT LAKE CHOSEN AS NEXT YEAR'S PLACE OF MEETING.

The grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Utah completed its sessions yesterday afternoon with the election of the grand lodge officers for the ensuing year. The officers had been chosen by direct vote of the local lodges in the state, and all that remained for the grand lodge to do was to ratify the choice of the Odd Fellows of the state. This program was changed, however, by a letter from W. W. Thompson, grand master-elect, who is seriously ill in Muscatine, Ia. Mr. Thompson thanked the Odd Fellows for the honor that had been conferred upon him, but declined to accept the position on account of his illness.

The resignation of the grand master-elect was entirely unexpected, and caused some little confusion since this course made it obligatory on the grand lodge to elect a grand master. The resignation of Mr. Thompson was accepted, and Deputy Grand Master Archie Stuart of Sandy was unanimously chosen grand master. W. J. Moore of Salt Lake was elected deputy grand master to succeed Mr. Stuart. At the request of Mr. Thompson, John Morley of Eureka was elected grand warden. The other grand officers chosen were: Rev. P. A. Simpkin of Salt Lake, grand secretary; J. W. Sugden of Salt Lake, grand treasurer, and Eph Homer of Provo, grand representative.

Two Important Measures.

At the morning session of the grand lodge several matters of important legislation were considered, but only two of any importance were adopted. One of these was the complete separation of the jurisdictions of the Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs. The institution of the Rebekah lodges and the distribution of the revenue derived from the membership is left entirely to the ladies of the Rebekahs. The other measure passed dealt with a closer supervision of the details of the grand lodge elections.

The auditing committee reported the distribution of the funds of the lodge, and showed that financially the order is in excellent shape. The lodge is providing a fund for the erection of an orphan's home, and the committee's report showed that this fund is increasing rapidly. A committee consisting of Parley P. Christensen, N. C. Price and E. N. Race was appointed to determine upon the establishment and administration of a state fund for the widows and orphans of the Odd Fellows of Utah.

A delegation from the Commercial club of Nephi presented the grand lodge with an urgent invitation to hold the next grand lodge session in Nephi. On account of the availability and the facilities for accommodation, however, Salt Lake was again chosen. Arrangements are being made for the annual Odd Fellows' excursion into Salt Lake some time during the summer for an outing, at one of the resorts.

Presentation of Gifts.

The election of officers took the greater part of the afternoon session, after which the Grand Master Archie Stuart, on retiring from office, delivered a feeling address. He received, as the gift of the grand lodge, a beautiful jewel which was presented by J. J. Thomas. The grand master then presented silver loving cups to the Kollingsham and Pissetto boys of Sunnyside, who walked in the parade wearing the emblems of Odd Fellowship. The little fellows were delighted with the presents.

Appointment of committees and appointive officers was deferred for a few days, because of the unexpected turn of the election. These appointments will be announced within a few days by the grand master.

When the gavel fell at 8 o'clock it adjourned one of the most interesting and representative sessions of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows ever held in Utah.

UNION REVIVAL MEETING.

Large Number in Attendance at First Presbyterian Church.

The third of the revival meetings of the various evangelical churches throughout the city was held last evening at the First Presbyterian church. A large number were in attendance and the meeting was held in the Sunday school rooms.

BUILT RIGHT.

Brain and Nerves Restored by Grape-Nuts Food.

The number of persons whose ailments were such that no other food could be retained at all, is large and reports are on the increase.

"For twelve years I suffered from dyspepsia, finding no food that did me distress me," writes a Wisconsin lady. "I was reduced from 145 to 90 pounds, gradually growing weaker until I could leave my bed only a short while at a time, and became unable to speak aloud."

"Three years ago I was attracted by an article on Grape-Nuts and decided to try it."

"My stomach was so weak I could not take cream, but I used Grape-Nuts with milk and lime water. It helped me from the first, building up my system in a manner most astonishing to the friends who had thought my recovery impossible."

"Soon I was able to take Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast, and lunch at night, with an egg and Grape-Nuts for dinner."

"At the time of beginning Grape-Nuts I could scarcely speak a sentence without changing words around or 'talking crooked' in some way, but my brain and nerves have become so strengthened that I no longer have that trouble." There's a Reason. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

NEWLY ELECTED GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

At the top are Deputy Grand Master W. J. Moore and Grand Master Archie Stuart of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows. The two lower pictures show Grand Secretary P. A. Simpkin and Grand Treasurer John W. Sugden.

The service was conducted by W. D. White, the head of the Baptist Mission society in the state, who spoke about an hour.

The music was in charge of the Rev. Mr. Nickerson of the Methodist church of Murray, who, besides leading the assembly, sang a solo.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mary Manning comes to the Salt Lake theatre tonight in "Glorious Betsy," which has proven a tremendous success elsewhere.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" will play a return engagement at the Salt Lake theatre, beginning next Monday evening. There will be a popular priced matinee on Wednesday. The company is still under the management of Messrs. Stockwell and MacGregor, and the farce will be presented in an excellent manner by a company of clever farceurs. Seats are now selling.

There will be a wedding on the stage at the Grand theatre tonight after the final curtain on "The Factory Girl," in which Theodore Lorch and his company are now appearing.

All the arrangements are completed. This afternoon Miss Maude Vivian Carlton and her lover, George A. Gillispie, will be given an auto ride about town by the management of the Grand. After the play closes tonight at the Grand the stage will be decked with special scenery and flowers and attended by Mr. Lorch and the leading women of his company, the couple will be united in wedlock.

The bridal party will occupy all the boxes on the left hand side of the theatre. Miss Carlton and Mr. Gillispie act as a present from the management of the Grand.

The Orpheum bill, since the addition of Mr. Stegel's act on Thursday evening, has proven very popular and is drawing big audiences.

BEGGAR GETS THIRTY DAYS.

Request for a Floater Overruled by Judge Diehl.

Thomas McLaughlin, beggar, accepted thirty days in the chain gang under protest yesterday afternoon in the police court. On Tuesday night Tom was seen in front of the Alta club asking alms of the club members as they went in and came out. Watchman C. C. Riley ordered him to quit the neighborhood. A short time later Watchman Riley saw Tom in First South street near Commercial street. The man was still begging for money.

But when Tom was arraigned in the police court yesterday afternoon, he declared that he did not remember having begged, and for that reason he felt compelled to plead not guilty.

Judge Diehl found him guilty. Tom then asked for a "floater," which meant that he wanted to walk out of town, rather than work with the chain gang. In support of his request, he pleaded a previous good record. As his face seemed familiar, Judge Diehl made some inquiries which elicited the information that Tom had been in the police court many times. Tom was informed that the court did not have a "floater" for him.

TO RUSH SHIPMENTS.

Fowler Will Visit Property Leased by Salt Lake Men.

Thomas Fowler, constable in justice of the Peace Daniel T. Smith's court, will leave today for Pioche, Nevada, as representative of the Salt Lake men who have taken a lease upon the lead and silver properties of the Gordon Mining and Milling company, near the Nevada camp. Among the men interested in the lease are: Bransford; Tom Williams, Dick Johnson, E. Eynon, Joe Cecil, John Edwards and others.

One has been found in a tunnel upon the Gordon properties which runs 78 per cent. lead and 72 ounces of silver to the ton. Fowler's purpose in going to Nevada is to hurry the shipment of ore, so that as much as possible can be taken from the mine before the expiration of the lease.

THEFT OF PURSE PLACES CLASS OF UNIVERSITY GIRLS UNDER SUSPICION

The disappearance of a purse containing $50.00 and the subsequent placing of all the members of a class of girls under suspicion caused considerable excitement at the University yesterday. Numerous thefts have taken place at the school lately and the school authorities are working hard to trap the culprits, so when the purse was missed yesterday every student in the room where the purse was supposedly taken was taken into custody while the matter was investigated. The guilty party, however, was not detected, as the purse was found a few minutes afterwards outside the building near one of the windows of the room.

The class in manual training which meets in the southwest corner of the physical building was in session when Victoria Reed, a fourth-year normal, noticed that her purse, which she had just laid down, was missing. She immediately reported the loss to Mr. Tipton, the instructor, and as it seemed probable the purse was in the room, a search was made for it, with no result. All of the girls were then asked to put away their work and repair to another room. After they had gone the lockers and drawers were opened without finding the missing article.

The girls became indignant at being placed under suspicion and attempted to find out who their number was guilty, but after being in session for several hours, during which time all submitted

ANOTHER SMALLPOX CASE

E. G. Morford Has Disease—The Members of Family Said to Have Been Ill.

Another smallpox case was discovered yesterday by Dr. Samuel G. Paul of the health department. The patient is E. G. Morford, aged 34, who resides with his wife and two children at 764 Third avenue.

According to Dr. Paul, the wife and children have probably all had the disease within the past three weeks in a mild form and without realizing the fact. He would not say whether because of the failure of the family to call a physician widespread contagion might result, but intimated as much.

The case was discovered by accident. Mrs. Morford was sick Tuesday evening and Dr. W. R. Calderwood was called. After Mrs. Morford had been treated Morford asked the doctor the cause of a rash on his body. Dr. Calderwood looked him over and notified Dr. Paul early yesterday morning that it might be a smallpox case. Dr. Paul immediately went to the house and diagnosed it as such. He also examined Mrs. Morford and the children, and is of the opinion that all three have had the disease in a very mild form and have now recovered.

Morford would not consent to going to the quarantine hospital, so the house was quarantined.

According to the story told Dr. Paul by Morford, the family came here from Fairburg, Neb., March 26 last. On the way out here Mrs. Morford became sick and there was a slight rash on her body. Afterwards the children had similar experiences, but nothing was thought of the matter, and a doctor was not called until Mrs. Morford had some other ailment, which led to the discovery of the case.

REWARD SENT TO GROCER.

James D. Young Gets $500 Offered for Sullivan's Capture.

When James D. Young, a Portland, Oregon, grocer, gets the letter which Chief of Police Pitt mailed to him yesterday he will be a happy man. The letter contained a check for $500, the reward for the capture of Joe Sullivan, the murderer of Policeman Ford.

Young, a keen, observing man, saw a picture of Sullivan after the murderer's flight from Salt Lake. Soon afterward to a rigid examination, they were no closer to ascertaining the identity of the thief than before.

In the meantime the custodian searched all the lockers in the library, the museum and the physical buildings, and a search was made in every room in the school for the purse. The purse happened to be picked up soon after the discovery of the theft, on the outside of the building near one of the open windows of the room. The finding of the purse was not made known until the school authorities had made use of every possible means of detecting the thief.

It is supposed that the thief tossed the purse out of the open window when the loss was reported, giving up the plunder rather than be found out. As there were about forty girls in the class, it was impossible to place the responsibility on anyone, but the girls are exceedingly anxious to have the matter cleared up. The theft of the purse is only one of the many peccadilloes that have taken place at the school recently, in which articles of every description have been taken. There has been considerable stealing at the school for the last two years, but after the discovery of the kleptomaniac last fall there has been little stealing until a month ago. Since then it has been as bad as it ever was. The school authorities believe that the thief this time is a girl, as in the previous case, but they are unable to lay their hands on her.

he met Sullivan in front of a saloon. He called a policeman. In a jiffy he had made $500 and placed one of the most dangerous criminals in the country into the hands of justice.

WIFE BREAKS UP GAME.

Mrs. Garrett Declares Her Husband Has Been Robbed.

After watching her husband for a while at the play cards with Sam Howard in the Empire rooming house Tuesday night, Mrs. C. H. Garrett seized the cards and game, shouting that Garrett had been robbed. Howard, in the excitement following the wife's denunciation, disappeared.

When the cards were examined, it is alleged, it was found that they were marked. Garrett went to the police court yesterday morning and swore out a complaint, charging Howard with cheating at cards. Howard was arrested in the afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Steele and Sharp and taken to the county jail.

ONLY RUSHING THE CAN.

Mrs. Schop Insists Beer Never Makes Her Drunk.

"Mrs. Ellen Schop, were you drunk on Tuesday?" asked Judge Diehl yesterday afternoon.

"Drunk?" replied Mrs. Schop, with an intonation of surprise. "I was rushing the can, and I didn't do it more than once in every five minutes."

"Were you drunk?" repeated the judge.

"I was drinking beer," said Mrs. Schop. "Beer never makes me drunk." Judge Diehl decided to fine Mrs. Schop $5.

"Twenty dollars!" shouted Mrs. Schop. "You won't get twenty cents out of me." Mrs. Schop will have to spend twenty days in the city jail.

FOR PIMPLES, TOO.

New Discovery Cures Eczema and Eradicates Minor Skin Troubles Over Night.

A few months ago the dispensers of poslam, the new discovery for the cure of eczema, decided to allow the druggists of the country to handle it. Previous to that time it could only be obtained direct from the laboratories.

Since this change in the method of distribution, poslam has met with the most phenomenal success of anything introduced to the drug trade in the last thirty years. All leading druggists, including the F. J. Hill Drug Co. in Salt Lake City, are now carrying the special 50-cent size recently adopted, also the $2 jar.

This great success is not surprising when it is remembered that, in eczema cases, poslam stops the itching with first application, proceeds to heal immediately, and cures chronic cases in a few weeks. In minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, acne, herpes, blotches, rash, etc., results show after an overnight application. Experimental samples of poslam are sent to anyone by mail free of charge, by the Emergency Laboratories, 22 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.
